13 June – 1 July 2012

PARIS & the LOIRE VALLEY

A FRENCH LANGUAGE & CULTURE TOUR

Organized by Cpéderf in France in cooperation with Dr Brian McKay in New Zealand

Conceived especially for members of the branches of the Alliance Française and people enrolled in U3A French courses but anyone keen to practise and perfect their oral French will be most welcome! Even enthusiastic beginners!

The Eiffel Tower in summer

Arrive Paris 13 June

9 days in Paris
(and around)

9 days in the Loire Valley

Depart Angers 1 July

The fortress château of Angers

Improve your knowledge of the French language, with abundant practice of listening to and speaking French, as well as developing your knowledge of French culture.

The tour will combine serious practical work combined with a wide variety of cultural experiences, offering you an enjoyable holiday designed to ensure you return home understanding and speaking French with greater confidence and facility than when you arrived. And having learned quite a bit more about France!

Your tour leader :

Dr Brian McKay

(Former HOD French and Research Fellow, University of Auckland)
(Vice-President of the Alliance Française, Auckland)

Assisted by Annie Bancroft

(Co-director of Cpéderf – Paris, and founder-director of the Creipac in Noumea)
(Cpederf actually runs the tour - having more than 25 years of experience providing French Language & Culture courses in cooperation with University French Departments and branches of the Alliance Française)

*The tour is timed so that your last evening in Paris (21 June) coincides with the annual
"Fête de la Musique"
(The whole of France is out in the streets making and/or listening to music!)*

Practise your French all the time in a friendly atmosphere!
All visits in small groups of a maximum of 8 – 10 persons, so that everyone can participate easily!
